Randy L Barton, aka Randy Boogie, a multi-disciplined artist, carries on his Dine' (Navajo) tradition through his visionary live painting performances. Randy is a designer, dancer, DJ, live-performance-painter and music producer. His events are fused with his turntable poetry and experimental earth dancing. When he paints live on the street he entertains crowds with not only his beats but also his quick brush and knife strokes. Randy says he utilizes Neo Contemporary Native Arts as a vehicle to promote healing and consciousness.
